Please indicate 1st and 2nd choices as some classes will fill quickly. All Citizenship and Communications Merit Badges require both weekends (either both Morning sessions or both Afternoon sessions). Classes are on a first-come/first-served basis. Preference will be given to older/higher ranked Scouts for Citizenship in the Nation and World. At the completion of the Merit Badge University, a letter will be sent to the Scoutmaster listing what was completed by each Scout. All supplies for Merit Badges will be supplied unless otherwise noted. Merit Badge books for all classes is recommended and will be available for purchase. Current requirements for each Merit Badge is available at www.meritbadge.com. Scoutmasters must sign each registration form, indicating their approval for the Scout to take the sessions he has signed up for. All Merit Badge Counselors are registered with and approved by the Cimarron Council.
